

On the People's Lawful Authority

This Business Follows the Law

We are a constitutionally compliant business.

We do not force employees or customers to wear masks.

You have the right to assemble here.

Government employees, and officers of any chamber of commerce, who come on the premises are trespassing without obtaining permission first.